

Chuck Duer, Contract Therapist, has worked in the field of mental health for over 20 years. His interest in helping individuals and families began as a child when, throughout his formative years, he witnessed his parents welcome individuals with disabilities into their home and lives. After earning a Bachelor's Degree of science at Freed Hardeman University in 1988, he began his mental health career by working with children and adolescents in long-term residential care settings as a Direct Care Worker. In 1997, he earned a Master's Degree in Agency Counseling from the University of Alabama at Birmingham. His career has included working at Glenwood, Gateway, Hillcrest Behavioral Health and Triumph Services. When he is not a counselor at
