

George Kakoliris, Life Coach, graduated from The University of Alabama with a degree in Marketing Research and a minor in Statistics. After a career in private business operating restaurants, George and his wife served as a Family Teaching couple at The King's Ranch for six years, fostering over thirty girls in a family setting. Most recently, George was employed by Glenwood Inc., where he worked with SED and at-risk youth. George has been married to Penny for 26 years and has two daughters, Kristi, 24, and Connie, 22. He is an avid Alabama football fan and enjoys exercising and spending time with his family.