

Lynn Smith, Contract Therapist, graduated from Kennesaw State University with a BS in Psychology. She worked for over seven years as Director of Christian Education / Youth & Children's Minister in Marietta, GA before coming to Birmingham to attend Beeson Divinity School where she earned a Master's of Divinity. Shortly after graduation she became an Associate Pastor at The Church at Oneonta. She worked for Blount County CASA, while a year later beginning a Master's of Counseling degree at UAB. She served her counseling internship with Triumph and has stayed on as a contract Therapist. Lynn and her husband live on the family farm that has been around since the early 1800's and happily share it with 8 dogs!