

Phillip W. McCallum

Phillip W. McCallum is a founding shareholder of McCallum, Methvin & Terrell, P.C. Phillip graduated from the Cumberland School of Law at Samford University located in Birmingham, Alabama and was admitted to practice law in the state of Alabama in 1988. Phillip worked for 3-1/2 years as a prosecutor in the Jefferson County District Attorney's Office before becoming a civil litigator. In 1997, he served as President of the Birmingham Bar Association, Young Lawyers Division. He has served on the Birmingham Bar Association Grievance Committee for three years and is a member of the Alabama Supreme Court Chief Justice's Commission for Professionalism. Phillip has served three terms on the Alabama State Bar's Board of Bar Commissioners representing the Tenth Judicial Circuit of Alabama. Phillip is currently President-Elect of the Alabama State Bar (2011-2012) and will assume the position of President of the Alabama State Bar (2012-2013). His law firm recently received the prestigious Pro Bono Award for outstanding leadership and contributions to equal justice in Alabama. He is a member of numerous professional organizations and is admitted to practice law in Alabama, Texas, Oklahoma and West Virginia.